

CONTENTS

Section One: Defining syllabus design

1	The scope of syllable design 1 (David Nunan, 1988: 3-9)
2	Points of departure 21 (David Nunan, 1988: 10-26)
3	Product-oriented syllabuses 49 (David Nunan, 1988: 27-39)
4	Process-oriented syllabuses 81 (David Nunan, 1988: 40-60)
5	Objectives 115 (David Nunan, 1988: 61-71)

Section Two: Demonstrating syllabus design

	Needs and goals 131 (David Nunan, 1988: 75-84)
7	Selecting and grading content 145 (David Nunan, 1988: 85-95)
8	Selecting and grading learning tasks 157 (David Nunan, 1988: 96-121)
9	Selecting and grading objectives 175 (David Nunan, 1988: 122-133)

10	Glossary (David Nunan, 1988: (157-158))	183
Section Three: Miscellaneous
11	The syllabus (Hutchinson and Waters, 1987: 80-95)	191
12	The problems and principles of syllabus design (Widdowson, 1990: 127-155)	211
13	Syllabus design (Carter and Nunan, 2001:151-159)	251
Section Four: Accessories
	Appendix A Keys to correct slots	277
	Appendix B Extra blank answer-sheets.	295