

July 15, 2009

Mr Ismail Baroudy,
Shahid Chamran University,
Faculty of Letters and Humanities, Department of English,
Ahvaz, Iran

Dear Mr Baroudy,

I am pleased to write that your proposal “A Conceptual Analysis of Writing Process and Product Dichotomy” has been accepted for presentation at the 2009 International Asian Conference on Education, held in Osaka, Japan, at the RAMADA Hotel Osaka, on Saturday and Sunday, October 24-25, 2009.

Panel sessions begin Saturday morning and run throughout the weekend. Panels run 90 minutes, with generally four presenters per panel, so each presenter has 20 minutes total for presentation and Q&A.

For complete information about the conference, please visit www.ace.iafor.org and click on the title information for authors, listed in the contents bar.

If you are in need of a Letter of Invitation, please complete the registration process by paying the fee, and contact me at tduke@iafor.org

We apologize that ACE cannot offer any funding, grants, scholarships or discounts of any nature on the registration fee, accommodation, or airfare.

If you cannot attend, please notify me at tduke@iafor.org. Due to the conference size, preferential dates and times are limited/

The Conference Programme will be on the website in late September 2009. Your name and paper title will be listed in it upon payment of your registration fees.

Thank you for participating in the ACE 2009 Conference. All of us affiliated with the organization aim to make this inaugural conference a success.

Sincerely,

Thomas Duke MA
Conference Coordinator
The Asian Conference on Education 2009